Employee’s Notification of New Child in the Family
Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA)

Family and Medical Leave Act Rules: New Child in the Family

The Family and Medical Leave Act guarantees each worker 12 weeks of time off per year for the birth, adoption, or placement in foster care of a child; the employee can also use the leave to care for the child during the first year. To take FMLA leave for a new child in the family, an employee must notify management within 30 days (when practicable) of the anticipated date of the birth, adoption, or foster care placement. This form may be used for that purpose.
